The original title: Evankeliumi

A

1. Our world is groan - ing in dis - tress and in sin.
All cre - a - tion waits for a new day to be - gin. God has come up - on the earth, His free - dom He gives. We are called to go and tell, that Je - sus Christ lives.

Christ is the hope of the world, it's the mes - sage that we bring.
Christ is the hope of the world, it's the rea - son why we sing.

2. When we pray and do our work, God will do His part.
Work will bear fruit, when He has opened a heart.
Even though we fail and our faith is not strong,
mighty God will walk beside us all the day long.

3. Jesus Christ has come to bring the whole world to light.
Equal are all nations in our loving God's sight.
Far away in distant lands or right by my side
there is always someone for whom Jesus has died.
