

Tell the World

The original title: Kertokaa

words and music Pekka Simojoki

A C F<sup>(add<sup>9</sup>)</sup> C

1. Have you heard: with His ho - ly word God has made the world and planned the whole cre -
(2. He's the) light. Who can match His might? The sun can't shine as bright as Je - sus in His

F<sup>(add<sup>9</sup>)</sup> C F<sup>(add<sup>9</sup>)</sup>

a - tion? More than we ev - er hear and see God will give and glo - ry. On the earth noth - ing has more worth. On His night of (t: 2. & 3. verse)

C F<sup>(add<sup>9</sup>)</sup> G

He brings hope to ev - ery na - tion. Let the world know all that you've seen, birth be - gan the great - est sto - ry.

Am <sup>1</sup>F G

Let the world know all that you've heard. 2. He's the

2 F G

know all that you've heard. Tell the world

B C F (add<sup>9</sup>) C

good news to the poor: there's no hun-ger an-y-more. The deaf will hear and

Am G C F (add<sup>9</sup>)

blind will see. Tell the world there'll be no more pain, the lame will walk a-gain.

C Am G F G C

God's king-dom is in you and me. Tell the world. D.C. al Fine Fine

3. Hear us say: God is here today.
 Never turn away, no matter where you come from.
 All the ill, those who suffer still in the end they will praise Jesus in His Kingdom.

Translation: Hanna Rundgren and Pekka Simojoki